MAC receives grant applications through Manipogo, our online application system. To apply for this grant, create a profile in our system.

1. Project information

You will be asked to provide your project title, the artistic discipline(s) most relevant to this application, your project's stage of development, type of activity within your project, and residency dates.

In addition, you will be asked to address the following:

- Background, influences, and previous activities relevant to this application (maximum of 500 words)
- Project description (maximum of 750 words)
- Public presentation description (maximum of 250 words)
- What is your relationship to the culture(s) and/or communities represented in your project? (maximum of 200 words) If your project involves communities, cultures, or cultural practices outside your own community or culture, demonstrate how you are approaching the subject matter with cultural integrity. (maximum of 200 words, if applicable)
- Additional information that has not been asked that is essential to understanding your application (maximum of 250 words)

2. Support materials

Support material should be samples of current work/activities relevant to your grant application; it may include the work/activities of other key artists or partners. You may choose to include earlier work/activities to provide a context for your application.

You will be asked to submit a minimum of one, and up to a maximum of three items of support material.

Grant application guidelines

The following count as one item:

up to 5 digital images OR up to 15 pages of text OR up to 4 minutes of audio or video

For instance, your three items can be a total of 15 images, or 45 pages of text, or 12 minutes of audio/video. But you can also submit a combination of images, text, and recordings, as long as it falls within the limits.

You will be asked to describe how the support material relates to this application. (maximum of 500 words)

Assessor review questions

Your application will be assessed by an assessment panel composed of fellow artists and arts professionals. They will use the following statements established for this grant to make their decisions. Assessors will only consider those statements that apply directly to your project. Every effort is made to ensure that applications are assessed fairly. MAC accepts the decisions of the panel as final.

1. The applicant proposes innovative and promising experimentation. Consider, for instance:
 - Does the project undertake artistic risk?
 - Does it push the envelope?
 - Is it original and/or innovative?
2. A clear artistic, thematic, and conceptual vision underlies this application. Consider, for instance:
 - Does the application make clear how it will explore a contemporary and/or traditional artistic practice?
 - Does the applicant explain their choices?
 - Is there a clear logic behind the project?
3. The applicant has the technical skills and artistic rigour to complete this project.
4. The proposed project has artistic value. Consider, for instance:
 - Will the proposed project contribute to the applicant's artistic development?
 - Does it address themes and issues relevant to the public and/or the applicant's artistic practice?
 - Will it contribute to the art form?
5. The applicant has given adequate consideration to questions of cultural integrity.
 - Consult the resource page to learn more about MAC's understanding of cultural integrity.

Grant application guidelines

6. The proposed project develops meaningful connections with the potential to generate future artistic opportunities.
7. The proposed project will contribute to the applicant's artistic development or (if the applicant is an organization) will strengthen the organization's ability to fulfill its mandate.
8. The proposed project will benefit audiences and participants.
9. The proposal reflects thorough research and planning. Consider, for instance:
 - Does the workplan accurately identify and address all key stages of the project?
10. The budget accurately acknowledges the likely costs and revenues of the project. Consider, for instance:
 - Has the applicant given adequate consideration to artist payment and working conditions?
11. The applicant has the resources to complete the proposed project. Consider, for instance:
 - Does the application reflect the resourcefulness of the applicant and the applicant's ability to find practical and creative ways to overcome obstacles?
