Application content

MAC receives grant applications through Manipogo, our online application system. To apply for this grant, create a profile in our system.

- Project information

You will be asked to provide a project title and select the artistic discipline(s) most relevant to this application, the project start date, and end date.

In addition, you will be asked to address the following:

- Describe the competition or event (maximum of 750 words)
- Payment and working conditions (maximum of 100 words)
- List all prizes
- What is your relationship to the culture(s) and/or communities represented in your project? (maximum of 200 words) If your project involves communities, cultures, or cultural practices outside your own community or culture, demonstrate how you are approaching the subject matter with cultural integrity. (maximum of 200 words, if applicable)
- Additional information that has not been asked that is essential to understanding your application (maximum of 250 words)

- Decision-making

You will be asked to list everyone who will be involved in selecting the prize winners and describe how your organization chooses them (maximum of 200 words). You will also need to describe how decisions will be made (maximum of 200 words).

- Budget

You will be asked to complete the budget form provided. The standard budget form is used across most MAC grant applications and some sections may not apply to your project. Enter whole dollar amounts only; do not include cents. Include brief clarifications of individual budget lines in the description fields, if necessary.

Assessor review questions

Your application will be assessed by an assessment panel composed of fellow artists and arts professionals. They will use the following statements established for this grant to make their decisions. Assessors will only consider those statements that apply directly to your project. Every effort is made to ensure that applications are assessed fairly. MAC accepts the decisions of the panel as final.

1. A clear artistic, thematic, and conceptual vision underlies this application. Consider, for instance:
 - Does the application make clear how it will explore a contemporary and/or traditional artistic practice?
 - Does the applicant explain their choices?
 - Is there a clear logic behind the project?
2. The proposed project has artistic value. Consider, for instance:
 - Will the prize contribute to the participant's artistic development?
 - Will it contribute to the art form?
3. The applicant has given adequate consideration to questions of cultural integrity.
 - Consult the resource page to learn more about MAC's understanding of cultural integrity.
4. The proposed project develops meaningful connections with the potential to generate future artistic opportunities.
5. The proposed project will contribute to the applicant's artistic development or (if the applicant is an organization) will strengthen the organization's ability to fulfill its mandate.
6. The proposed project will benefit the artistic community in Manitoba.
7. The proposed project will benefit audiences and participants.
8. The decision-making process is fair and transparent.
9. The proposal reflects thorough research and planning.

10. The budget accurately acknowledges the likely costs and revenues of the project. Consider, for instance:

- Has the applicant given adequate consideration to artist payment and working conditions?

11. The applicant has the resources to complete the proposed project.

Consider, for instance:

- Does the application reflect the resourcefulness of the applicant and the applicant's ability to find practical and creative ways to overcome obstacles?
- Does the applicant have the support of presenters, partners, and host organizations?
