

Indigenous 360

Offline Application Form

Application deadlines: April 25 and October 25

This is the application form for offline submissions to the Indigenous 360 micro-grant. This application form is intended for applicants who are D/deaf or living with a disability who require an accessible application, or those who have limited internet access.

We strongly recommend that you have the Indigenous 360 guidelines and MAC's general guidelines with you while you work on your application.

To complete your application, fill out the following forms:

- Section A – Registration details
- Section B – Project Information
- Section C – Budget
- Section D – Support Material
- Section E – Declaration
- Section F – Voluntary Identification (optional)

Submit a complete application including your support material to the Manitoba Arts Council on the day of the deadline by mail, email or by delivering it in-person.

Note: if the deadline falls on a weekend or statutory holiday, we will accept your application on the following business day.

If you are submitting your application by mail, make sure that the envelope is post-marked on the date of the deadline (or earlier).

Section D - Support Material Instruction

Support material is one of most the important parts of your grant application. The assessment panel, who decide whether your project will be funded, will view these examples of your work to see the type and quality of art you create. These materials can include writing samples, images, videos, audio recordings, and more.

Support material should be samples of your current or past work, and it should relate to and/or support your proposed project; it may include the work/activities of other key collaborators or partners.

Quantity of support material allowed

Submit a minimum of one, and up to a maximum of three items of support material.

The following count as one item:

up to 5 images OR up to 15 pages of text OR up to 4 minutes of audio or video

For instance, your three items can be a total of 15 images, or 45 pages of text, or 12 minutes of audio/video. But you can also submit a combination of images, text, and recordings, as long as it falls within the limits. Do not submit original work or the only copy you have. Support material will not be returned.

How to submit support material

Support material may be submitted on a DVD, CD, USB or sent by email to helpdesk@artscouncil.mb.ca. For audio/video files, you may also enter a link toward Vimeo, YouTube, SoundCloud or Bandcamp.

For further details see Support Material Requirements in MAC's General Guidelines.

Section E. Declaration [part 1/1]

Translation

MAC welcomes applications in English and French. Where an application is submitted in French, MAC will engage a bilingual assessor who is familiar with the discipline. Portions of the application will also be translated into English for use in the jury or panel process, in addition to being provided in the original language. When portions of an application are to be translated, the applicant has the option of having MAC provide the translation or of hiring a translator of their choice and being reimbursed for their expenses at a rate of $0.27 per word.

- ☐ I am completing this application in English.
- ☐ I am completing this application in French and I will contract my own translator.
- ☐ I am completing this application in French and MAC can send my application for translation.
