

Indigenous 360

Offline Application Form

Application deadlines: April 25 and October 25

This application form is only for applicants who are D/deaf or living with a disability and require an offline application, or applicants who have limited internet access.

We strongly recommend that you have the Indigenous 360 guidelines and MAC's general guidelines with you while you work on your application.

To complete your application, fill out the following forms:

- Section A – Registration details (pages 1 to 3)
- Section B – Project Information (pages 4 to 7)
- Section C – Budget (page 8)
- Section D – Support Material (page 9)
- Section E – Declaration (page 10)
- Section F – Voluntary Identification (optional) (pages 11 to 13)

Submit your completed application, including your support material, to the Manitoba Arts Council on the day of the deadline by mail, email or by delivering it in-person.

Note: if the deadline falls on a weekend or statutory holiday, we will accept your application on the following business day.

If you are submitting your application by mail, make sure that the envelope is post-marked on the date of the deadline (or earlier).

Office Hours
8:30 am to 4:30 pm, Monday to Friday, closed for lunch from 12:30 pm to 1:30 pm.

The Manitoba Arts Council carries out its work on the original lands of the Anishinaabeg, Anishinewuk, Dakota Oyate, Denesuline and Nehethowuk Nations, and on the National Homeland of the Red River Métis. We acknowledge that northern Manitoba includes ancestral lands of the Inuit. Our office is located on Treaty One territory, but our work extends throughout Treaties Two, Three, Four, and Five.

Indigenous 360

Offline Application Form

Application deadlines: April 25 and October 25

Section B - Project Information [part 2/4]

Project description

Tell us about your project. Consider the following questions, if applicable:

- What are you planning to do?
- What do you hope to achieve?
- Why is this project important?
- How will your project positively impact the Manitoba Indigenous community?
- How will this project impact your artistic career or development?
- Where will you be presenting your work and who will be your main audience?

Note: if you need more space to write, use the extra pages provided at the end of this application, or continue writing on the back of this page.

Indigenous 360

Offline Application Form

Application deadlines: April 25 and October 25

Section B - Project Information [part 3/4]

Timeline

Provide a timeline/work plan for the activity. Include dates and a breakdown of the main activities involved in your project.

Note: if you need more space to write, use the extra pages provided at the end of this application, or continue writing on the back of this page.

Indigenous 360

Offline Application Form

Application deadlines: April 25 and October 25

Section B - Project Information [part 4/4]

How does this project relate to your Indigenous background and community?

Consider the following:

- Are you adapting or presenting Indigenous culture and/or traditional artforms in a respectful way?
- Do you plan on consulting with an Elder or Knowledge Keeper as you prepare and carry out your project?

Note: if you need more space to write, use the extra pages provided at the end of this application, or continue writing on the back of this page.

Section C - Budget [part 1/1]

Describe how you will use the grant

Keep in mind that the grant you are applying for is competitive. MAC is not able to honour all requests for funding. Your application will be assessed in part on the basis of your explanation of why you need the full amount that you are requesting. If you are successful, you may receive a full award or a partial award of at least 75 per cent of the amount you requested.

Note: if you need more space to write, use the extra pages provided at the end of this application, or continue writing on the back of this page.

Section D - Support Material Instruction

Support material is one of most the important parts of your grant application. The assessment panel, who decide whether your project will be funded, will view these examples of your work to see the type and quality of art you create. These materials can include writing samples, images, videos, audio recordings, and more.

Support material should be samples of your current or past work, and it should relate to and/or support your proposed project; it may include the work/activities of other key collaborators or partners.

Quantity of support material allowed

Submit a minimum of one, and up to a maximum of three items of support material.

The following count as one item:

up to 5 images OR up to 15 pages of text OR

up to 4 minutes of audio or video

For instance, your three items can be a total of 15 images, or 45 pages of text, or 12 minutes of audio/video. But you can also submit a combination of images, text, and recordings, as long as it falls within the limits. Do not submit original work or the only copy you have. Support material will not be returned.

How to submit support material

Support material may be submitted on a DVD, CD, USB or sent by email to helpdesk@artscouncil.mb.ca. For audio/video files, you may also enter a link toward Vimeo, YouTube, SoundCloud or Bandcamp.

For further details see Support Material Requirements in MAC's General Guidelines.

Section E. Declaration [part 1/1]

Translation

MAC welcomes applications in English and French. Where an application is submitted in French, MAC will engage a bilingual assessor who is familiar with the discipline. Portions of the application will also be translated into English for use in the jury or panel process, in addition to being provided in the original language. When portions of an application are to be translated, the applicant has the option of having MAC provide the translation or of hiring a translator of their choice and being reimbursed for their expenses at a rate of $0.27 per word.

- I am completing this application in English.
- I am completing this application in French and I will contract my own translator.
- I am completing this application in French and MAC can send my application for translation.

Communication

How would you like to receive written communication from the Manitoba Arts Council?

Assessor database

MAC maintains a database of potential assessors from Manitoba and across Canada. Any individual with an active profile in Manipogo, MAC's online application system, is included in this database.

Program Consultants make every effort to ensure that each assessment panel fairly and adequately represents the applicants and the artistic expressions as provided within the applications, in terms of:

- Age
- Gender
- Geographic region
- Official languages
- Indigeneity
- Race and ethnicity
- Disability
- Being part of the D/deaf community
- Being part of other underserved communities

If you would like MAC to take into account the information you share in the Voluntary Identification section above when putting together assessment panels, we ask you to give us permission for that by selecting the option "I agree" below.

You may withdraw your permission whenever you want by selecting the option "I disagree" in your profile settings.

I agree. You may use my Voluntary Identification information when selecting assessors.

I disagree. You may not use my Voluntary Identification information when selecting assessors.
